M.V.Sc. Research ...

Under the guidance and mentorship of Prof. Dr. P.S. Lonkar; the major focus of my M.V.Sc. research topic was to study the effect of combined toxicity of aflatoxin and ochratoxin in broilers with effectiveness of dietary concentration of probiotic containing yeast culture of Sacchromyces boulardii @ 10 mg/kg of feed against mycotoxins. The degree was awarded in 2004 for thesis entitled -“Toxicopathology of combined effect of Aflatoxin and Ochratoxin in relation to efficacy of probiotics (Sacchromyces boulardii) in Broilers”.

Ph.D. Research ...

Under the guidance of Dr. S. D. Moregaonkar; for my Ph.D., I selected the research topic targeting therapeutic areas of diabetes. In this research, I used STZ induced diabetic model of SD rats and challenged aqueous and ethanolic plant extracts independent and in combinations for their toxicity, safety and efficacy to cater them as Diabetes Management Supplement. The experimental work was conducted in three phases and thesis entitled “Studies on Effect of Costus pictus and Enicostemma littorale Extracts in Streptozotocin induced Diabetes Mellitus in Sprague Dawley Rats” was submitted. The degree was awarded in 2018 for the said research work.
